

How to go from Zürich Airport to Konstanz

January 9, 2009

From the arrival hall, go downstairs to the train station.

There you can obtain a ticket (price about 26 CHF)¹.

The trains depart typically on Platform 1.

Every hour at minute 48, there is a direct connection, which brings you in about one hour to Konstanz. The last such connection is at 20:48.

Every hour at minute 18, there is a non-direct connection with one change at Weinfelden. Please be advised that the change time is just 4 minutes, and you have to go from Platform 1 to Platform 4C (however, there is no reason to worry. This is Switzerland.). The last such connection is 23:18.

¹If you are in possession of a Bahncard, you might be able to obtain the reduced price for the whole distance under the provisions that you buy the ticket at a german station, and that the trip contains a part with non-zero length on german territory, which can be satisfied if you order a ticket with destination Konstanz-Petershausen and get off at Konstanz Hbf.
